

1998 NCAA Championship Team

Tom Wilkins captured one relay and three individual NCAA titles at the 1998 NCAA Championship meet.

Stanford University ran away from the rest of the field to easily capture the 1998 NCAA Men's Swimming & Diving Championships at Auburn University, marking the Cardinal's fourth national title of the decade and seventh in the last 14 years.

The Cardinal finished with 599 points at NAAs, the second most in school history (632 in 1991-92), to outdistance defending champion and host Auburn's 394.5. Stanford recorded an NCAA Championship first by having at least one top-eight finalist in all 18 swimming events. In all, the Cardinal won eight of a possible 18 events, and recorded an amazing 16 top three finishes.

"This team swam unbelievably," said the Cardinal's Tate Blahnik, the winner of the 200-yard backstroke. "There were no weaknesses in any event. It was hard to believe how focused we were and how well we swam the whole week."

Senior Tom Wilkens ended his Stanford career in style by winning all three of his individual events. Wilkens defended his national title in the 400 yard Individual Medley (3:43.96), and also captured the 200 yard breaststroke (1:55.02) and 200 yard Individual Medley (1:45.16). His win in the 200 yard breaststroke officially clinched the national title.

Matthew Pierce captured the 200 butterfly title.

If that wasn't enough, Wilkens shattered his own school record in the 400 Individual Medley (3:45.59) and broke Trip Zedlitz' Cardinal mark of 1:45.36 (1993) in the 200 Individual Medley. He also tied World Champion Kurt Grote's school record in the 200 breaststroke (1:55.02). Wilkens finished his Stanford career with 182.5 NCAA points, which ranks him fourth in school history behind only Pablo Morales (235), Jeff Kostoff (193) and Derek Weatherford (184).

"We set goals to do what we've done, and we came in here thinking we could pull it off," Wilkens said. "but when you do it – when it actually happens – it's really exciting."

Wilkens was joined in the winners circle by both Matthew Pierce and Blahnik. Pierce won the 200 yard butterfly in 1:43.68 (teammate Steven Brown was second in 1:44.00), and in the process turned in the second best time in school history in the event behind only Pablo Morales (1:42.60).

Blahnik won the 200 back in 1:41.21 to bring home the Cardinal's fourth national title in that event in the 1990's (Jeff Rouse, 1992; Derek Weatherford, 1994; Brian Retterer, 1995).

The Cardinal won three of five relays, including an American, NCAA and U.S. Open record setting performance (1:16.76) in the 200 yard free relay by Anthony Robinson, Sabir Muhammad, Justin Ewers and Scott Claypool. Stanford also touched the wall first in both the 400 yard free relay (Dod Wales, Muhammad, Glenn Counts, Claypool; 2:51.37) and the 400 yard medley relay (Blahnik, Wilkens, Muhammad, Wales; 3:07.73).

The Cardinal's dominant postseason performance helped Cardinal coach Skip Kenney further lengthen his list of accomplishments on The Farm. Kenney, who has led Stanford to seven NCAA titles and 18 top five finishes in his 20 seasons, was named both the 1997-98 NCAA and Pac-10 Coach of the Year. The NCAA honor was his first since 1992 and sixth overall, while the Pac-10 award was his 12th and fourth in the last five seasons.

Kenney's Pac-10 dominance also continued as the Cardinal won its 17th straight conference title dating back to 1982. Stanford finished with 962.5 points, to easily outdistance second place USC's 700.5 in the three-day meet in Long Beach. The 17 straight conference titles is a Pac-10 record in any sport.

Skip Kenney – All-Time Leading Pac-10 Coach

The Stanford men's swimming and diving team became the most dominant program in Pacific-10 history by winning a 14th consecutive conference championship in 1995. Led by coaches Skip Kenney, Ted Knapp and Rick Schavone, Stanford broke the conference record for consecutive titles, established by UCLA men's basketball under John Wooden. The Cardinal has now run its streak to 22 consecutive Pac-10 titles, and has gone on to finish in the top four at NAAs in every one of those years as well.

Head coach Skip Kenney's teams, shown here with legendary UCLA basketball coach John Wooden, have captured an unprecedented 22 consecutive Pacific-10 titles; more than any other coach in any sport in the history of the conference.

Stanford Athletics Home of Champions

"Home of Champions." Those are the bywords for the Stanford University Athletic Department.

And for good reason. No athletic department in the country can boast of the kind of success that Stanford has accomplished since the 1980s. NCAA team champions. NCAA individual champions. Olympic medalists. Stanford University athletes have been all over the world capturing championships.

The statistics speak for themselves: Stanford University has won 68 NCAA team championships since 1980, the most in the nation; Cardinal athletes have won 45 NCAA championships since 1990 – again the most in the nation. Stanford has brought home 23 NCAA championship trophies the past six years, including an unprecedented six NCAA team titles in 1996-97. In 1991-92, Stanford athletes took home 29 individual NCAA titles – an NCAA record. Cardinal athletes won 21 individual championships during the 1992-93 season, the second most in history.

Even more impressive is Stanford's string of nine consecutive Directors' Cup titles (1995-03). The award honors the nation's top overall athletic program and with nine straight #1 finishes, it's no wonder Stanford is considered the dominant athletic program in the nation.

Stanford captured its ninth straight Directors' Cup in 2002-03 with 1420.5 points, winning the honor by 326.5 points over second place Texas.

The Cardinal won a total of two NCAA team crowns with championships in men's water polo and cross country. The Cardinal added second place national finishes in baseball, women's volleyball, men's soccer, women's cross country, women's tennis, women's water polo and synchronized swimming. A total of 13 Stanford teams finished among the nation's Top Five and 24 among the Top 10, and 28 among the Top 25. The Cardinal also picked up nine individual NCAA titles and 12 team conference championships.

Tiger Woods is one of the PGA's most successful golfers with victories in all four Majors.

No other athletic department in the country can boast of the kind of success that Stanford has accomplished.

Stanford has now won at least one NCAA team championship for 26 straight years. Cardinal teams have also won four or more NCAA team titles in a single year nine times, an NCAA best.

All totaled, Stanford has won 95 collegiate team titles (85 NCAA championships) and 376 NCAA individual titles. Cardinal women have won an NCAA-best 29 team championships while men's teams have captured 56 NCAA team titles, third best in the nation. Overall, Stanford's 85 NCAA team championships rank second in the nation.

In the last 10 years (since 1993-94), Stanford has claimed 35 national team championships and 32 NCAA team titles – the best in the country.

In 2000-01, Stanford won an NCAA Team Championship in women's tennis and had 15 teams finish in the top five nationally. The Cardinal also had 20 teams place among the top 10 and 26 among the top 25, to go along with 14 individual national championships and 12 conference titles. Stanford finished with 1,359 points in the Sears Directors' Cup standings to easily outdistance runner-up UCLA's 1,138.

In 1999-2000, Stanford won the Sears Director's Cup by a wide margin for the sixth consecutive year. Stanford won team championships in men's tennis – its 18th overall in that sport – and men's track and field while placing second nationally in six other sports (baseball, women's volleyball, men's water polo, synchronized swimming, women's tennis and women's golf).

In 1999-2000, Stanford's football team won the Pacific-10 Conference championship and played in the Rose Bowl for the first time in 28 years while the men's basketball team earned a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament, tied for the conference title, finished 27-4 overall and held the nation's No. 1 ranking during the season. The Cardinal baseball team followed by sharing the Pac-10 crown and advancing to the College World Series, marking the first time in history that a school won Pac-10 championships in football, men's basketball and baseball in the same year.

Stanford has also enjoyed unequalled success in Olympic competition.

At the 2000 Summer Games in Sydney, Australia, Stanford University was represented by a total of 34 athletes and coaches. The Cardinal contingent won a total of 10 medals – four gold, three silver and three bronze.

At the 1996 Games in Atlanta, Stanford again placed 49 coaches and athletes on Olympic Teams, including three head United States Olympic coaches (Tara VanDerveer, women's basketball; Richard Quick, women's swimming; Skip Kenney, men's swimming). Stanford athletes accounted for 16 gold medals, one silver and one bronze in Atlanta.

At the 1992 Games in Barcelona, Cardinal athletes earned 19 medals – 10 gold, four silver and five bronze. If Stanford were a country, it would've placed 13th in the world with its 19 medals and ninth with 10 golds. Thirty-eight Stanford-affiliated athletes and coaches participated in Barcelona while 41 members of the Cardinal family took part in the 1988 Olympic Games in Seoul, Korea.

National titles have become quite commonplace in the Stanford Athletic Department. In 1996-97, Cardinal teams set an NCAA record by winning six NCAA team championships in a single academic year: men's and women's cross country, men's and women's volleyball and men's and women's tennis. Nine other teams finished in the Top Four nationally, including second place finishes in women's swimming, men's swimming, men's water polo and synchronized swimming. Stanford also posted third place finishes in women's basketball, baseball and fencing, as well as fourth place finishes in women's golf and women's water polo.

The 1996-97 school year also saw the Cardinal football team advance to the Sun Bowl, the 18th bowl game in school history, the women's basketball team return to the Final Four, the baseball team qualify for the College World Series and the men's basketball team advance to the Sweet Sixteen of the NCAA Tournament for the first time since it won the 1942 NCAA title.

The following year (1997-98) Stanford won NCAA team titles in men's cross country, women's volleyball, men's swimming, women's swimming and men's tennis along with a U.S. Collegiate title in synchronized swimming. Also, 14 teams finished among the nation's Top Five, 19 in the Top 10 and 22 in the Top 20. Other teams finishing among the Top Five nationally included men's basketball, which made its first Final Four appearance in 56 years, women's tennis, men's water polo, women's water polo and fencing.

During the 1998-99 campaign, Stanford won one NCAA team title in women's tennis and one U.S. Collegiate Championship in synchronized swimming. Seven teams placed second in the nation, including men's cross country, men's soccer, men's swimming, women's swimming, men's track and field, men's water polo and women's water polo. Third place finishers included baseball, women's cross country and men's and women's fencing.

Cardinal teams also won 18 conference or regional championships in '98-99 – by far the best performance of any school in the nation. Stanford has now won 149 conference or regional titles since 1991, again the best in the country.

Not only has the Cardinal won an NCAA record six NCAA team championships in a single season (1996-97), but it has also won five NCAA titles in a single year on three occasions: 1991-92, '94-95 and '97-98. Cardinal teams have won four championships in a single academic year on five occasions: 1985-86, '86-87, '92-93, '93-94 and 2001-02.

Stanford has simply dominated in several sports. Under head coach Dick Gould, the Cardinal men's tennis team has won 17 NCAA titles while the women's team has hauled in 13 national titles. The men's swimming program has won eight NCAA team championships, seven under current head coach Skip Kenney while the men's water polo team has captured 11 national titles.

The Cardinal women's swimming team has won nine national titles, seven under current head coach Richard Quick. Quick has been the head coach for the United States Olympic Swimming teams in 1988 (Seoul), 1996 (Atlanta) and 2000 (Sydney). Tara VanDerveer, the 1996 United States Olympic Head Women's Basketball Coach, has led the Cardinal to two NCAA championships and five appearances in the Final Four.

Baseball coach Mark Marquess, who was the head coach of the gold medal winning 1988 United States Olympic baseball team, led the Cardinal to back-to-back College World Series titles in 1987 and '88. Former men's gymnastics coach Sadao Hamada led the Cardinal to three NCAA championships, current men's volleyball coach Don Shaw guided the Stanford women's volleyball program to four NCAA titles in the 1990s and current women's volleyball coach John Dunning guided the Cardinal to an NCAA title in his first season in 2001. Former men's golf coach Wally Goodwin led his team to the NCAA title in 1994, the first men's golf title at Stanford since 1953. Vin Lananna joined the championship parade in 1996 by leading both his men's and women's cross country teams to national titles. He came back in 1997 to lead his men's cross country team to another NCAA title and in 2000, his men's track and field team won the first national championship in track at Stanford since 1934. Lananna also led the men's cross country program to the 2003 NCAA Championship.

All-American Tony Azevedo, under first-year head coach John Vargas, led Stanford to its 10th NCAA Water Polo Championship in 2002.

Olympic gold medalists are numerous on The Farm. Former Cardinal standout Bob Mathias won back-to-back Olympic decathlon gold medals in 1948 and '52 while swimmers Pablo Morales, Jenny Thompson, Summer Sanders, Janet Evans and Misty Hyman have become household names in the swimming world.

Morales, who helped Stanford win three straight NCAA team championships (1985-87), won three medals at the '84 Games in Los Angeles (one gold, two silver) and two more gold medals at the '92 Games in Barcelona. Evans won three golds in the '88 Games in Seoul and one gold and one silver in Barcelona, while Sanders won four medals in Barcelona; two gold, one silver and one bronze. Thompson is the most decorated athlete in Olympic history with eight gold medals, a silver and a bronze. Hyman added her name to the list of Stanford swimming greats by winning the 2000 Olympic Gold Medal in the 200 meter butterfly to pull off one of the biggest upsets of the Sydney Olympiad.

Some of the great student-athletes in Stanford history include Tiger Woods and Tom Watson (golf), John McEnroe, Roscoe Tanner and Tim Mayotte (men's tennis), Kim Oden, Kristin Klein and Logan Tom (women's volleyball), Kristin Folk (basketball/volleyball), Jack McDowell and Mike Mussina (baseball), Julie Foudy (women's soccer), Hank Luisetti, Brevin Knight and Mark Madsen (men's basketball), Jennifer Azzi and Kate Starbird (women's basketball), Jim Plunkett, John Elway and Troy Walters (football), Debi Thomas (figure skating), Eric Heiden (speed skating) and the great Ernie Nevers (football), to name a few.

It's no wonder Stanford University is often referred to as the "NCAA's Champion of Champions."

Acclaimed as one of the largest swimming facilities in the nation, the former deGuerre Pool Complex, named after Dorothy & Sidney deGuerre, was finished in 1972 at a cost of $2,200,000. The newly renovated Avery Aquatic Center serves as the home for the men's and women's swimming and diving teams, the men's and women's water polo teams, and the synchronized swimming team. The complex includes four separate pools: the Avery Stadium Pool, the Maas Diving Center, the Belardi Pool, and the Baker Recreation Pool.

The Avery Stadium Pool is 37 meters long and 20 meters wide. It tapers from 11 feet to 14 feet deep and features dual one-meter and three-meter Maxiflex springboards on the south end. The Maas Diving Center's pool is 25 meters wide, 17 meters long, and 18 feet deep. The Maas Diving Center features a concrete dive tower with platforms at 1, 3, 5, 7, and 10 meters. The platforms are covered with Mondo Surfacing. The dive tower is flanked on each side with dual one-meter and three-meter Maxiflex springboards. The Belardi Pool is 50 meters long, 25 yards wide and tapers to a depth of 11 feet in the center. The Baker Recreation Pool is also 50 meters long and 25 meters wide, and varies from 4.5 to 8.5 feet deep.

The Sandy Foundation Team Room (men's) is located on the east side of the pool deck. The Harold A. Miller Team Room (women's) is located on the west side of the deck level. Both rooms were refurbished by Joan and Mel Lane in 1996. In 2000, two additional team locker rooms were completed. The Men's Timkin Team Room and the Women's Team Room are now in use. The Avery Stadium Pool has a new scoreboard on the north end of the pool, installed and built by Daktronics.

The Avery Aquatic Center is located between Sunken Diamond and the Taube Family Tennis Stadium. The event entrance is on the north-east side via the plaza, adjacent to Chuck Taylor Grove.
